REMARKS

In the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment dated 09/11/2007, the prior amendment filed on 7/10/2007 was asserted to be non-compliant because the first line of claim 1 contained the text “a computer”, where the original version of the claim contained a capital “A”. This was an inadvertent typographical error. Because the prior amendment was a non-final amendment, only the corrected section of the non-compliant amendment is necessary to comply with this Notice. Accordingly, the Applicants have submitted above a new listing of the claims in which the inadvertent error in claim 1 has been corrected. The Applicants respectfully submit that they have complied with the Notice and respectfully request consideration of the amendments and arguments presented in the July 10, 2007 response.
